

People . . . On the Move

(Promotions, Assignments, Affiliations)

Clayton B. Elm, of 608 Palos Verdes Blvd., has been promoted to vice president in the national division of the Bank of America. He joined the bank in 1952 and since 1963 has been an assistant vice president in the bank's national division. Elm managed the South Redondo Beach from 1960 to 1963.

Merlyn K. Johnson, 2945 Winlock Road, has been elected president of the Palos Verdes-Torrance Chapter of the National Association of Accountants. Johnson, a CPA, is assistant treasurer of Sargeant Industries, an aerospace subcontractor in Huntington Park. He is a charter member of the local NAA chapter.

George C. Geisen Jr., who lives in Lomita, has been appointed as U. S. Steel's Torrance Works. He joined U.S. Steel in 1956. At the same time, the appointment of John Cochrane as turn foreman-maintenance was announced. Cochrane lives in Torrance.

Dr. Warren Jones, 18412 Dalton Ave., has been appointed by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn to the county's Economy and Efficiency Committee. Dr. Jones is chairman of the Speech Department at Pepperdine College and minister of the Redondo Beach Church of Christ.

Jack A. Swain, president of the J. A. Swain Co. and Refrigeration Components, Inc., of Harbor City, has been elected chairman of the board of the Roessler-Chadwick Foundation. Robert Volk, state Commissioner of Corporations and Rolling Hills resident, was elected to a term on the board.

W. Holman Howe, assistant cashier and lending officer at the Torrance branch of the Bank of America, is observing his 40th anniversary with the bank this month. He has been assigned to the Torrance branch since 1960.

Earl Childs, 345 E. Carson St., has received a 50-Year gold pin from members of the 328th Redondo Beach Masonic Lodge. Childs, who was 90 on his last birthday, is a Knight Templar in the fraternal organization.

Dr. Warren Jones, 18412 Dalton Ave., has been appointed by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn to the county's Economy and Efficiency Committee. Dr. Jones is chairman of the Speech Department at Pepperdine College and minister of the Redondo Beach Church of Christ.
